

Careers Guidance and Advice

General

- National Careers Service; provides careers advice and information on a wide range of jobs, training course resources and funding: <https://nationalcareersservice.direct.gov.uk>
- I Could: has 1000s of career videos of people from 100s of careers: <http://icould.com/>
- Careers Box: holds the national careers film library and The Skills Explorer: <http://www.careersbox.co.uk>
- <https://www.allaboutcareers.com/> information about the job market for students, graduates and school leavers. They also have websites for law careers, finance careers, apprenticeships and school leaver programmes.
- <https://www.prospects.ac.uk> for graduate jobs, postgraduate study, advice about work experience, internship opportunities and graduate careers.
- As well as being a jobs board, the Career Advice blog (<https://www.cv-library.co.uk/career-advice/>) provides a range of student services such as CV advice, interview advice, information on apprenticeships.
<http://www.getting-in.com> Access to educational and careers resources, including revision materials, tips on exam technique, guidance on applying to university, practical careers tips, apprenticeship vacancies and information.

Apprenticeships

- To find out more about apprenticeships and information about vacancies and opportunities visit the apprenticeship website: <http://www.apprenticeships.org.uk/> or <http://amazingapprenticeships.com/>
- From apprenticeships to debt-free education, there are literally thousands of other opportunities out there. The Not Going to Uni team are there to help you find apprenticeships, college courses or work experience to start building your future: <http://www.notgoingtouni.co.uk/>

Higher Education

- Find out more about university study and the different degree courses available. Check what A Levels and UCAS points are needed for every course in the country: <http://ucas.com>
- Where to study, what to study and how to get there: <https://university.which.co.uk/>

Don't forget parents and students can log onto Start Careers Profile to research a hundreds of different careers and find out important labour market information.