Predict	Clarify	Question	Summarise
I will think about what the chapter is about. I will think about what might happen next. I can: • Use the title • Use the headings. • Use the illustrations • Use what I already know by activating prior knowledge • Use what I have already read In the last chapter… In the last part… In the next paragraph… The next paragraph tells me.. • I will read the text to check my predictions. • I can change my predictions as the author gives me more information.	I will talk about the words that I don't understand. I will write down the words or phrases I don't understand. I will find out what they mean. I can: • Stop and think about what the author wants to tell me • Re-read or read on to find clues • Picture it in my mind • Think about what I already know • Make sure I am using the punctuation • Read faster or slow • Look for the base word • Try another word which makes sense • Use a dictionary	I will ask questions to help me understand what I have read. I will think of questions while I am reading the text. • What? When? • Where? Who? • Why is… important? • Why did… do that? • What are the differences between…? • What would you do? • What do you think about? • What are the reasons for…? • Is…fact or fiction? How do you know? • How do you feel about the character? • What part was most interesting? • How is the author making us feel?	I will identify the main idea in the text. I will say what the page is about in two sentences. I will leave out the small details. I will use headings, titles, and the topic sentence. I can say things like: • This page is about… • The main point of this paragraph is…. • The main idea is… • The next idea is… • The most important information is… • In this part of the story… • The author is telling me… • The author wants us to think…